[REDACTED]
(U/AIUO)

25X1A

1. (U/AIUO) An investigation by this Office has determined that [REDACTED], both assigned to your Office, were responsible for an "open safe" security violation that occurred on 3 March 1978.

25X1A

2. (U/AIUO) The records of this Office indicate that [REDACTED] have not been previously charged with a security violation.

25X1A

3. (U/AIUO) In accordance with the provisions of [REDACTED] Section (e), the minimum penalty for a first violation is an oral reprimand and warning of possible consequences of further violations. Section (f) of this same regulation requests that the Director of Security be notified in writing of the action taken in this case.

25X1A 1. DETAILS OF THE VIOLATION: (U/AIUE) On 3 March 1978, at 2011 hrs., [REDACTED] reported finding an open safe in Room 7E-07, Headquarters. [REDACTED] responded and determined safe #D-3478, containing SECRET material, was found with both drawers closed; however, the dial had not been spun. The lock setting was "86" and the lock and butterfly were in the open position. The char force had not worked in the area.

25X1A 2. INDIVIDUAL(S) RESPONSIBLE

A. (U/AIUE) [REDACTED]	OFFICE DCI	DIVISION RM	BRANCH
B. (U/AIUE) [REDACTED]	DCI	RM

25X1A 3. DESCRIPTION OF HOW VIOLATION OCCURRED:

25X1A (U/AIUE) On 8 March, [REDACTED] were interviewed. Mr. [REDACTED] advised he attempted to open the safe but could not. [REDACTED] volunteered to open the safe, which she did. When they left the office, neither [REDACTED] checked the safe to insure it was properly secured.

25X1A (U/AIUE) In view of the above, both [REDACTED] are in violation of [REDACTED]

25X1A (U/AIUE) This violation was discussed with the DCI/SO and the RM/SO to institute procedures to preclude future violations in this office which is used infrequently by members of the Resource Management Staff.

25X1A 4. SECURITY HISTORY OF PERSON(S) RESPONSIBLE:

(U/AIUE) [REDACTED] have been employed by this Agency since February 1978 and have incurred no previous security violations.
